

Join the Green Army!

Is this for you?

Are you aged between 17 and 24, an Australian citizen or permanent resident and would like to be a part of a team that will make a REAL difference to the environment in your local community?

Would you like to be paid an allowance while gaining skills, training and experience that can help you enter the workforce, improve your career opportunities or further your education and training?

Then the GREEN ARMY is for you.

The Green Army is an Australian Government initiative open to young people including Indigenous Australians, school leavers, gap year students, graduates and job seekers who are looking to develop skills, undertake training and gain experience in the delivery of conservation projects. Through this, participants will enhance opportunities for careers and further training in conservation.

Dandenong Ranges

This project aims to assist in establishing a significant bio-link which stretches from the Dandenongs in the West to Bunyip State Park in the East. The focus will be on the Southern and Eastern areas surrounding the Puffing Billy Corridor.

Activities will include: Plant propagation, fauna surveys, pest management, weed surveys and treatment.

To Apply

Complete the application form on www.conservationvolunteers.com.au/green-army

More Information

Visit: www.environment.gov.au/green-army

Phone: 03 9326 8250

Connecting people with our environment