The Arts Barn in Gaithersburg is a repurposed 99-seat theater with performances and rotating art exhibits. The Artist-In-Residence studios focus on their craft and community outreach.

Formerly a popular amusement park, The Glen Echo Park is home to a community of artists, educators, dancers, and performers who share their knowledge and expertise with more than 400,000 people each year. In addition to the vintage carousel and bumper cars, the park holds weekly dances in the Spanish Ballroom – swing, salsa, classical, Cajun, balboa, and even the blues! There is never a shortage of creativity with the Adventure Theatre, Art Glass Center, Photowoks Studio, the Puppet Co., and the Washington Conservatory of Music.

The Woodlawn Manor Cultural Park in Sandy Spring is home to the NEW Woodlawn Visitor Center, Woodlawn Manor, and the Underground Railroad Experience Trail. The Sandy Spring area has strong historical ties to Underground Railroad activity.

The Montgomery County Historical Society, located in Rockville, operates two museums and a research library. The Beall- Dawson House, an elegant circa 1815 Federal-style townhome, displays the history and heritage of Montgomery County. The Stonestreet Museum of 19th Century Medicine investigates the changes in medical practice from 1852-1903, the years Dr. Edward Stonestreet practiced medicine in this one-room, freestanding doctor’s office.

In Poolesville the Seneca Schoolhouse Museum still stands. Once a one-room school built of seneca sandstone. The Monocacy Aqueduct is a restored 174-year old seven-arched aqueduct that spans 516 feet in length over the Monocacy River.
